

OUTFLOW

March 7/8
Overflow

I. The overflowing life depends on _____.

a. Jesus is not:

i. _____.

ii. _____.

iii. _____.

iv. _____.

II. God is _____.

a. He is:

i. _____.

ii. _____.

iii. _____.

iv. _____.

III. Jesus does _____.

“Almost all our (human) relationships begin and most of them continue as forms of mutual exploitation. A mental or physical barter to be terminated when one or both parties run out of goods.” W.H. Auden

IV. Connecting with Jesus _____.

For Discussion

1. Describe how you felt about God's nature before you received Christ.
2. Do you ever find yourself feeling about God that same way even though you know it's not really true. E.g. You feel like God is angry with you when you sin or you feel like God is disappointed with you because of repeated failure in some area?
3. Do you tend to love unconditionally or do you express love and acceptance mostly when someone deserves it (does something that benefits you)?
4. How can you get out of the human love (see W.H. Auden's statement above)trap and begin to experience God's love to such a degree that you can love unconditionally?
