

GodTime™

weekly devotionals for kids & parents to do together (K–3rd grade) or for 4th–5th graders to do on their own

Read and do the “Read Me First” first. Read and do “Day 1” next, and so forth. If you can’t do all the days in a week, don’t worry. Doing one day’s worth is better than none!

Step 1: Each day, find and read the Bible verse(s) for the day in a Bible.
Use the table of contents to locate hard-to-find verses.

Step 2: Read the paragraph for the day.

Step 3: Read and do the activity for the day.

Step 4: Pray a prayer using the prayer sentence as a guide.

Tips: Even though kindergartners and 1st graders are beginning to read short things, they will need your assistance to have a “God time.”

Even though most second and third graders can read short things on their own, most aren’t mature enough to have a “God time” on their own. You will need to do it with them.

Most 4th and 5th graders are capable of having a “quiet time” on their own, once they’ve been taught how to do it, but they still need an adult to prompt them and/or follow up on it. Encourage your child to choose four different days this week to do these devotions.

Read Me First

Jesus could have gone back to heaven right after He rose from the dead, but He didn't. He showed humility by sticking around to make sure His followers understood what had happened and what He had done. He put us first AGAIN!

How long did He stick around?

(Read Acts 1:3 for the answer.)

How many people saw Him after He rose from the dead?

(See Matthew 28:1,8-9 and I Corinthians 15:5-8.)

Answers: 40 days; more than 500 people

Read Me Last DAY 3

Read John 14:15-17.

When we trust Jesus to be our Savior, the Spirit of God comes to live in us. God's Spirit has several names, including the Holy Spirit. Beginning at the arrow, write every other letter in the blanks below to discover more names for the Holy Spirit.

X R W O V L U E

C O _____

The Holy Spirit gives us the power to do hard things, He makes us bold, He guides us, and He reminds us of what Jesus taught.

Thank God for sending the Holy Spirit to help and guide you.

Answers: Comforter, Helper, Counselor

Read Me Next DAY 1

One of the reasons Jesus didn't go back to heaven immediately was to make sure people knew He was alive. We have plenty to be happy about because Jesus is ALIVE! We should want to run and tell others about Him. That's one of the most important ways to put others first.

Read Matthew 28:19-20a.

Flip this card over and write all the things you can think of that you know about Jesus. Challenge someone in your family to make a list, too. See whose list is longer. Then mark the 3 most important things you think someone needs to know about Jesus.

Ask God to help you share the good news about Jesus.

Invite a friend to your small group next week. This is a great way to tell others about Jesus.

Read Me Next DAY 2

Jesus wants us to believe in Him. But that's not all. He wants us to be His disciples. A disciple is a learner. A disciple also passes along what he has learned. The most important job of a disciple is to get to know her teacher and what the Teacher teaches. Read John 14:23-24. Unscramble the words to discover ways you can get to know Jesus better.
